

WAYMAN ACADEMY OF THE ARTS Title I, Part A Parental Involvement Plan

I, Simaran Bakshi , do hereby certify that all facts, figures, and representations made in this application are true, correct, and consistent with the statement of assurances for these waivers. Furthermore, all applicable statutes, regulations, and procedures; administrative and programmatic requirements; and procedures for fiscal control and maintenance of records will be implemented to ensure proper accountability for the expenditure of funds on this project. All records necessary to substantiate these requirements will be available for review by appropriate state and federal staff. I further certify that all expenditures will be obligated on or after the effective date and prior to the termination date of the project. Disbursements will be reported only as appropriate to this project, and will not be used for matching funds on this or any special project, where prohibited.

Assurances

- The school will be governed by the statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the definition outlined in Section 9101(32), ESEA;
- Involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A in decisions about how Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement are spent [Section 1118(b)(1) and (c)(3)];
- Jointly develop/revise with parents the school parental involvement policy and distribute it to parents of participating children and make available the parental involvement plan to the local community [Section 1118 (b)(1)];
- Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under this part, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parental involvement policy and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan under section 1114(b)(2) [Section 1118(c)(3)];
- Use the findings of the parental involvement policy review to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary, the school's parental involvement policy [Section 1118(a)(E)];
- If the plan for Title I, Part A, developed under Section 1112, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit parent comments with the plan when the school submits the plan to the local educational agency [Section 1118(b)(4)];
- Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least mathematics, language arts, and reading [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(i)];
- Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in 34 CFR Section 200.56 [Section 1111(h)(6)(B)(ii)]; and
- Provide each parent timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals [Section (h)(6)(A)].

Mission Statement

Parental Involvement Mission Statement (Optional)

Response: Wayman Academy of the Arts' Board Members, Parents, Faculty, and Staff are committed to building excellent students. WAA will provide a rigorous academic program. Our goal is to develop a school parent partnership whose vision and mission is developing and nurturing thinking, competent, self-confident and responsible students prepared to successfully complete secondary education. The leadership and staff of Wayman Academy of the Arts have a strong belief in the importance of parental involvement and therefore have put measures in place to offer parent meetings on a flexible schedule.

Involvement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used [Sections 1118(c)(3), 1114(b)(2), and 1118(a)(2)(B)].

Response: Wayman Academy will offer parents the opportunity to participate in the planning and implementation of our Title I programs. Parents will be invited to attend a planning meeting to have input on this year's plan and give suggestions on ways to gain more parental involvement. We will distribute an annual parent survey to request ideas and suggestions from our parents. We will also place a suggestion box in the main office to encourage parent feedback on a regular basis. The Parental Involvement Plan will be kept in the front office for parents to review. We will also send home a summary of the plan to all parents. We will take this step to ensure that all parents have an opportunity to review and assess the plan. Parents will be involved in the decisions regarding how funds for parental involvement will be used.

Coordination and Integration

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI [Section 1118(e)(4)].

count	Program	Coordination
1	IDEA	Wayman Academy Parent Involvement programs will advise the parents of the Students with Disabilities of their rights in their child's education with greater student achievement in terms of grades, student attitudes and behavior. They will be encouraged to be more involved in planning, problem solving, decision-making and IEP input during parent teacher conferences, MRT meetings, and family connections nights.
2	Title 1	Wayman Academy will coordinate parent workshops and school events at various times to accommodate more parents' schedules as well as offering these workshops frequently throughout the year. Parents will be informed about programs that identify the activities that the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will undertake to share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement. In addition, the school will develop activities that the parents, school staff, and students will undertake to build and develop a partnership to help the children achieve to the State's high academic standards.

Annual Parent Meeting

Describe the specific steps the school will take to conduct an annual meeting designed to inform parents of participating children about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program (schoolwide or targeted assistance), Adequately Yearly Progress, school choice, supplemental educational services, and the rights of parents. Include timeline, persons responsible, and evidence the school will use to demonstrate the effectiveness of the activity [Section 1118(c)(1)].

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide with Title I funds, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services related to parental involvement [Section 1118(c)(2)].

Response: The leadership and staff of Wayman Academy of the Arts have a strong belief in the importance of parental involvement and therefore have put measures in place to offer parent meetings on a flexible schedule. Our annual meeting for parents of participating children will be offered in the evenings as well as during the day to allow parents to attend. In addition, we will offer our parent workshops and volunteer orientation at varying times to include morning and afternoon sessions. The parent center located in room#118 will be open every school day from 9:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. for parents to pick up materials. The parent liaison will maintain records of parent participation. The schedule may be modified as needed based on parents' participation. In addition, we will provide transportation to certain per-determined activities for parents to encourage participation. These activities will include trips to the public library with their child as well as the superintendent's reading celebration. We will provide childcare during our annual parent meetings to allow parents with small children to attend.

Building Capacity

Describe how the school will implement activities that will build the capacity for strong parental involvement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement [Section 1118(e)]. Describe the actions the school will take to provide materials and training to help parents work with their child to improve their child's academic achievement [Section 1118(e)(2)]. Include information on how the school will provide other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under Section 1118 as parents may request [Section 1118(e)(14)].

Other Activities

Describe the other activities, such as parent resource centers, the school will conduct to encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children [Section 1118 (e)(4)].

Response: In order to encourage and support parents in fully participating in the education of their children, Wayman Academy will open a parent resource center which will allow parents access to parent materials, accelerated reader, and other computer-based educational programs. The center will be open Monday-Friday from 9:00am-2:00pm. Shannon Ross (Guidance Counselor) will be responsible for maintaining the parent resource center. Parents will be reminded about the parent involvement center during Family Nights, Flyers, and Front office signs. In addition, we will have monthly parent workshops to address core academic areas and how parents can help their child at home. We will encourage parents to support their children outside of school through trips to the public library. We will invite parents to attend scheduled trips and provide transportation. We will also provide transportation from the school to the annual Superintendent's Reading Celebration. Finally, we will have quarterly open houses where parents can visit classrooms during the school day.

Communication

Describe how the school will provide parents of participating children the following [Section 1118(c)(4)]:

- Timely information about the Title I programs [Section 1118(c)(4)(A)];
- Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet [Section 1118(c)(4)(B)];
- If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children [Section 1118(c)(4)(C)]; and
- If the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114 (b)(2) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency [Section 1118(c)(5)].

Response: At the PIP Development Meeting and Annual Meeting of parents in August and September, Wayman Academy of the Arts will hold a general meetings where information will be presented about the Title I programs, the curriculum, and academic assessments. Parents will learn about the school wide program, how to schedule parent-teacher conferences, and opportunities for participation in decisions related to the education of their child. Upon conclusion of the general meeting, parents will be invited to visit their child's classrooms and meet staff. During the classroom visits, teachers will provide additional information on the subjects they teach, assessment plans, and how parents can help at home. The same information will be provided in an informational packet distributed the following day for all parents unable to attend. Teachers will maintain sign-in sheets and provide a copy to the designee. Throughout the year, various parent workshops will be held focusing on specific academic areas. Parents will be notified about these workshops via flyers and the school website. In addition, flyers will go home a week prior to each workshop and/or event to remind parents of the upcoming event.

Parents will have access to the parent involvement plan via school's website, and hard copies will be available at the front office. An opinion sheet will be attached along with the plan for parents to voice their opinions.

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parental involvement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand [Section 1118(e)(5) and 1118(f)].

Response: The PIP will be summarized and provided to all parents through the school website. The summary will outline the major components of the policy and the school will offer to provide a hard copy upon request. In addition, hard copies will be available in the office. The complete PIP will be posted on the LEA's website and linked from Wayman Academy's website.

Families with disabilities and other limitations will be handled on a case by case basis. All needs will be met. Information will be available in the enrollment packet. All families will fill out a language survey. This will assist us in determining if any translations are needed. All information is currently printed in the English language. If needed (based on home language surveys), WAA will utilize the district provided resource TransACT for translating documents into various languages (dated copies will be filed in PIP audit box.)
